

Wasatch Student Community

Council Newsletter

December 2020

Hello Wasatch Families!

I hope this message finds you well. As you are aware, the Salt Lake City Board of Education announced re-entry dates for elementary schools in the district. They also sent out a survey to better understand the number of students who plan to return to in-person learning. Many families expressed they have questions, concerns, or would like to share input for the re-entry plan. We would love to facilitate an opportunity for the members of our community to do so.

Please join our upcoming SCC meeting to have an open discussion and to better understand information about re-entry.

Our meetings are always the third Thursday of every month, currently via Zoom. You can find the Zoom link on our website or contact me directly for meeting information.

Join us, this Thursday, December 17th at 3:15pm, via Zoom:
